Return to Vibrancy Announcement:

Saint Thérèse never had an easy life. Although she suffered from depression, tuberculosis, and religious doubts she maintained a smiling, pleasant, and unselfish manner. She acknowledged that not one day had ever passed without a struggle. But she still lived with a great sense of peace and joy. Her sense of commitment led her to a profound experience of the love of God.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

Census Forms Reminder

Dear Parish Members,

This is a friendly reminder to give your prompt attention to our census forms, which is crucial for maintaining accurate records. Please ensure you complete and return the forms, even if there are no changes to your information. Blank forms are available at the back of the church if needed. Your cooperation helps us uphold the integrity of our records.

For those not yet registered with the church, we warmly invite you to complete a census form. Every detail matters, so kindly fill out all fields.

Thank you for your timely responses

Blessings and gratitude,
Little Flower Parish Team

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God."

1 Corinthians 10:31

Do a quick check of your priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He's not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other "gods" (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, "I'm I going this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?"

Donut Day

Don't forget about our Donut Day this Sunday immediately following Sunday's Mass! Join us for complimentary donuts, coffee, and fellowship. Everyone is welcome to attend!

CATECHISM LESSON FORTY-ONE

What are the Sins?

Watch: Videos:www.archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes/

Catechism Text: CCC No.'s 1854 – 1863, 1875 & 1876
Sacred Scripture: James 2.10-11, Matt 5.9 & 12.13, Mark 9.47-48, Isaiah 66.24, 1 John 5.16-18

St. Thomas Aquinas: Venial sin becomes mortal sin when one approves it as an end. . .

FAQ: Who wrote the First Catechism known as the Didache?

The author's name does not appear anywhere in the text and could be more than one person and the writer is often referred to as "the Didachist". The author was likely someone with a good knowledge of Jewish Scripture. Clayton N. Jefford, an associate professor at St. Meinrad School of Theology, suggests that "the Didachist was an early Jewish Christian whose religious perspective was still closely allied with the synagogue and traditional Jewish beliefs." Jefford, C. TF#387 Books That Changed Brett's Life - Part 1

In this part one of two episodes, Deacon Eric sits down with Dr. Brett Salkeld to discuss three non-fiction, non-theological books that changed his life. This week; Good and Angry by David Powlison and Hold me Tight by Dr. Sue Johnson.

Show Snippet: "The big feelers among us who express those things. People can't handle them and they need to know that, it's okay to be that kind of person. They still need to figure out how to manage themselves in different situations, but you're actually more equipped to manage yourself well if you're not just ashamed of being the kind of person you are."
