Thank you again for the huge donations for our March Food Drive. We're always happy and amazed by the generosity of the Little Flower Parishioners. This month was overwhelming, not only food but socks and underwear as well. You are serving people right in our own community. We are called to serve and this is a perfect example of what God wants us to do. God bless you all.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick. If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office. If you'd like to offer a mass on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit March 20, 2022 3rd Sunday of Lent

"...He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'"

Luke 13:7

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts, and return them with increase. Remember, we are called to be generous with all of gifts; especially the one that means the most to you. ?

Lent Reflections

Whenever there is Silence Whenever there is silence around me, by day or night, I am startled by a cry. The first time I heard it, I went out and searched and found a man in the throes of crucifixion.

I went to him and said, "I will take you down." And I began to take the nails out of his hands and his feet.

But he stopped me and said, "You cannot take me down. For I cannot come down until every man, every woman, and every child in the world shall come together to take me down.

"But sir," I said, "your cry: I cannot bear your cry."

"This cry," he told me, "It is the anguish of those with no food, of those who thirst, the ones huddled naked against the cold, the cry of those who are lonely and in prisons. This is the cry of the homeless, of the ones rejected and hated by society. It is the cry of those whose lives are snuffed out by anger, hate or fear.

This is the cry of those living on the edge of war, those made to wander from their homes in search of peace."

"Then what am I to do?" I asked him.

"Go about the world," he said, "Tell everyone you meet: It is a shared cross on which we all do hang."

Sign our petition for this at devp.org/act and spread the word. Thank you for supporting our campaign!

TF288: Redeeming Expertise with Josh Reeves

In an atmosphere of hyper-skepticism, Dr. Brett Salkeld and Deacon Eric visit with Josh Reeves, author of Redeeming Expertise: Scientific Trust and the Future of the Church, to discuss the phenomena of extreme skepticism its effects on polarization culturally and in the Church, and imagine healthier ways forward.

"I understand the impulse in "follow the science" in that you need to take science seriously, but also you have to be wary that oftentimes "follow the science" has a lot of values built into it that you can disagree with..." Did you know?

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee

Did you know...The Nehiyawak (Cree) had many spiritual ceremonies including the sundance, rain-dance, sweatlodge, pipe ceremonies, vision quests, feasts, giveaways, and many more since time immemorial. The Indian Act of 1876 banned these ceremonies until 1951, however, these traditions survived, and many Nehiyawak participate in these spiritual traditions today.
