PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

APRIL 10TH , 2022

Theme: Service is the hallmark of a Christian. In a society that prizes mastery, power and money, being a servant is a puzzle. Jesus invites us to be like him in serving others in need. Our reward will be his: misunderstanding, a change of life-style and even death.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick. If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office. If you'd like to offer a mass on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

Palm Sunday

"...I tell you, Peter before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me."

Luke 22:34

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity

Holly Week, 8 days of Easter

Holy Week is a string of eight days that allow us an opportunity to reflect upon the shift in humanity Jesus' sacrifice on the cross launched. It starts with Palm Sunday when Jesus enters the city of Jerusalem.

Jesus rode into Jerusalem on what we now call Palm Sunday; palm branches, which symbolize triumph or victory, were strewn in Jesus' path, as He rode into the city. He rode into town on a humble donkey, fulfilling the prophecy in Zechariah 9:9: "Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion! Shout, Daughter Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and victorious, low and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey." The people welcomed Him, echoing the words of Psalms 118:25-26: "Lord, save us! Lord, grant us success!" more popularly recognizes as "Hosanna! Hosanna!"

The week leads us through the Last Supper, His crucifixion, and ends on Easter Sunday with His resurrection. This is the basis of Christianity, His sacrifice launched the New Covenant God promised and many had prophesied throughout the Old Testament.

Each day of Holy Week allows us to peek into the heart of our Savior at intently close proximity. His love for us is reflected in every significant step toward the cross, every breath up to the last, and His resurrection.

Holy Week is a sacred opportunity to study the foundation of Christianity. Our God is not one of coincidence. Every step toward the cross was intentional, every lesson laced with His personal love for all of us.

In this part 2 of 2, guest Brett Fawcett joins the podcast from his balcony in China to discuss the theology of Galileo and the scientific philosophy of his compatriot, St. Robert Bellarmine.

Show Snippet: "Galileo makes a really interesting point in his letter where he talks about how, in the Book of Job there's a line that says...'God hangs the Earth on nothing'...and he quotes theologians like Thomas Aquinas who say 'Yeah it's true that the Bible in Job says that the Earth is hanging on nothing, but that's not literal. The Bible's not trying to teach us about science...'" thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/galileo-and-bellarmino

Did you know... "First Nations' people consider spirituality an integral part of life. Prayer is a form of communicating with the Creator. Prayer is taught to the young by grandparents and parents. Prayer is also a means of giving thanks to the Creator for all of life's gifts. Through prayer, you are asking the Creator for a good life, good health, good luck, protection, safety, successful parenting, happiness, and strength." (Cultural Teachings: First Nations Protocols and Methodologies, SICC, p.14).
