Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick. If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office. If you'd like to offer a mass on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit June 5, 2022

Pentecost Sunday

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you."

John 14:26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affect your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

What You Give to God, He Multiplies

Hattie May Wiatt, a six-year-old girl, lived near Grace Baptist Church in Philadelphia, USA. The Sunday school was very crowded. Russell H. Conwell, the minister, told her that one day they would have buildings big enough to allow everyone to attend. She said, 'I hope you will. It is so crowded I am afraid to go there alone.' He replied, 'When we get the money we will construct one large enough to get all the children in.'

Two years later, in 1886, Hattie May died. After the funeral Hattie's mother gave the minister a little bag they had found under their daughter's pillow containing 57 cents in change that she had saved up. Alongside it was a note in her handwriting: 'To help build bigger so that more children can go to Sunday school.'

The minister changed all the money into pennies and offered each one for sale. He received $250 – and 54 of the cents were given back. The $250 was itself changed into pennies and sold by the newly formed 'Wiatt Mite Society'. In this way, her 57 cents kept on multiplying.

Twenty-six years later, in a talk entitled, 'The history of the 57 cents', the minister explained the results of her 57-cent donation: a church with a membership of over 5,600 people, a hospital where tens of thousands of people had been treated, 80,000 young people going through university, 2,000 people going out to preach the gospel – all this happened 'because Hattie May Wiatt invested her 57 cents'.

The theme of multiplication runs throughout the Bible. What cannot be achieved by addition, God does by multiplication. You reap what you sow, only many times more. What you give to the Lord, he multiplies.

Prayer Ministry

Please pray for the needs of the sick of our parish, the homebound, people who are alone and/or afraid to go out, our farmers, those who are affected by COVID-19 and the health professionals working on the front line, those in nursing homes and those who care for them, especially: Agnes Fahlman, Fred Fry, Shelly Joubert, Lima Perras, Jose Estioco, Germain Beaurivage, Jack Gebert, Dean Hutchence, Judy Klenk, Don Morrell, Claudia Sali, Ron Strassburger, Louise Wingerter, Father Lorne Crozon, Fr. Peter Pham and also Jack Gebert

If you are a new parishioner or would like to have your anniversary here please contact the office administrator.

Vocation View

A vocation cannot be chosen. It is a call from God and thus the initiative begins with Him. We find this in the very word vocation, which comes from the Latin word "vocare" which means 'to call'. God makes the call, it is up to us to discern this call and answer it.

"Jesus said to them, 'My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work.'

John 4:34

Food Drive

We will have our Food Drive collection for Marian Centre and Visitation House during the weekend of June 11 & 12. All contributions are welcome. Thank you for sharing your treasure with those around you.

Please be mindful that we do not accept packaging that has been opened, items that are partially used or those beyond their expiry date.

Pope's Monthly Intentions

Pope Francis' MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS

For the month of June, Pope Francis shared his prayer intention:

"We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives"

Did You Know?

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...') Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... "The pipe is a sacred object among First Nations' people. The pipe is a means of communication with the Creator... An individual who has been gifted with a Pipe is referred to as a Pipe carrier. Respect, self-discipline, and humility are needed to be a carrier of the Pipe. If you use the Pipe, you must worship in truth; you have to answer for those things that may not be right."

Philomena Walking Pilgrimage

All are invited to take part in the 2022 Saint Philomena Walking Pilgrimage which is scheduled to take place from August 11th to August 14th. You can join us for all or part of the walk or you can offer help with providing meals or giving rides.

Or, you can help us with your prayers! For more information and to see about changes for this year, visit our website at www.stphilomena.ca. This year we are also looking for people who are able to billet some of our pilgrims for the night of Friday August 12th. That night we will be in the vicinity of Burgess Beach. If you have a cabin or camper in that area and can help us, please phone Dave or Bev at 306-728-5525."

Love in the Kitchen: A Recipe for Holiness

The dinner table and the kitchen aren't just for making memories – they're where saints are created. In celebration of 30 years of international child sponsorship, Chalice is inviting everyone - from aspiring chefs to those who just like to eat (or enjoy a drink!) - to our free online event: Love in the Kitchen: A Recipe for Holiness. This Corpus Christi weekend, June 18-19, cook a meal live alongside celebrity chef Fr. Leo Patalinghug and ask author Rita Heikenfeld a question about biblical foods. Through the insights of 20+ renowned Catholic speakers, you'll discover why our Catholic faith should have a place at every meal. Register today at chaliceevents.org/love-in-the-kitchen. Bon Appétit!

TF299: Saints and Mental Health: St. Raphael, Remedy of God

Our monthly series on the Saints and Mental health continues as Deacon Eric Gurash reflects on Archangel, St. Raphael, and his role not just as a healer of physical ailments, but as a powerful intercessor and companion in times of serious grief and emotional distress.

Show Snippet: "The story of Tobit and his family reminds us that these answered prayers often come in surprising, disguised ways. A coworker or friend, a bit of scripture or song heard at a time of great need, or, as with Raphael, a lonely traveler, a stranger...all may be secret encounters with the divine reaching out to give answer to the deep need of our hearts." thinking-faith.libsyn.com/saints-and-mental-health-st-raphael-remedy-of-god

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program

Mission-Discipleship-Service-Faith

"I see how graduates from the program have become more involved in the life of the parish: be it on pastoral council or one of the committees such as liturgy or social justice, etc. I have witnessed their faith grow from before they entered to the time of their graduation and how they become more in tune with their faith. In many ways you can see how they have fallen in love with the Lord and with his Church."

Fr. Stephen Bill, Christ the King, Regina.

One weekend per month from October until June, Catholics who want to know, love and serve Christ more deeply come together at Campion College in Regina. Are you ready to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ and his Church?

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

From Fear to Love: Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times from the Henry Nouwen Society

We live in trying times. Wars, mass shootings, climate change, political and economic polarization, hate crimes... and a pandemic that just won't go away! Add to this the stack of personal burdens that so many endure on a daily basis.

Despite the unbelievable advances in almost every area of life, advances our grandparents would be hard-pressed to even imagine, life is unavoidably anxious, stressful, and unpredictable.

Something to make things better...

Admittedly, we can't do much to change the ways of the world, but we can offer an amazing new series of five practical and profound meditational videos that will help anchor and sustain you during these difficult days.

Beginning July 16, the Henri Nouwen Society is delighted to present From Fear to Love: Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times with Rev. Marjorie J. Thompson.

Every week for five weeks, we will introduce a FREE new video on our HNS YouTube channel. Each video is designed to offer you insights and practices on how to enrich, deepen, and strengthen your spiritual life, and how to better cope with the stresses that threaten to erode your physical, mental, and spiritual wellbeing.

An invaluable and much-needed resource for these challenging times!

There will be support materials to accompany these videos available as FREE PDF downloads. To access these materials, you will need to register at Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/from-fear-to-love-spiritual-grounding-in-anxious-times-tickets-34418520621>
