THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

JUNE 15, 2025

Theme: We know God as Father, Son and Spirit. This intimate disclosure of God's being is revealed to us in Jesus. But the images are only a dim outline of the love which God shares with us in this Eucharist and whose fullness he promises us in the Kingdom.

St. Thérèse

St. Therese suffered intensely from constant headaches and insomnia. She endured fits of fever and trembling and suffered cruel hallucinations. Experts had diagnosed her sickness as everything from a nervous breakdown to a kidney infection. None of the treatments helped. Then, on May 13, 1883, Therese turned her head to a statue of the Virgin near her bed, and prayed for a cure. "Suddenly Mary's face radiated kindness and love." Therese was cured.

St. Thérèse said:

"The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God is the love of a Mother."

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs. To receive a visit from a chaplain, call:

- General Hospital – 306-519-1405
- Pasqua Hospital – 306-519-1380
- Wascana Rehab Centre – 306-530-6511

If you are admitted through the emergency room, you may not be asked about spiritual care, so please call the number above or notify your parish.

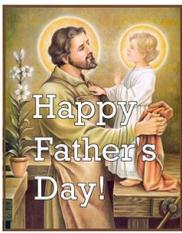

Please also let your parish know if you've been admitted to the hospital.

The Most Holy Trinity

“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth...” (JOHN 16:13)

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God's response.

Happy Father's Day

On this special day, we celebrate and honor fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, and all men who have been like fathers to us. May the intercession of St. Joseph, the Patron of Fathers, guide and strengthen all men in their vocation as fathers.

We pray that God grants them the wisdom, strength, and grace to lead their families in faith, hope, and love. Let us also give thanks to God, our Heavenly Father, who watches over us with eternal love and care. Blessings to all fathers today and always!

Father's Day Breakfast

Join us for a special Father's Day Breakfast this Sunday, June 15th, from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM at the hall.

Thinking Faith S02E09: Youth Ministry: Making a Mess with Michelle Braden and Braden Kuntz – Part 2

In this part two of two episodes, Deacon Eric and guests Michelle Braden and Braden Kuntz from the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry discuss the vital role of mentorship and accompaniment in youth and young adult ministry within the Archdiocese of Regina. The conversation sheds light on a variety of programs, including diocesan events like the MyGen Youth Rally, Variety Night, and Youth Leadership Camps, aimed at creating opportunities for youth to encounter Jesus and grow within their faith. The episode emphasizes the importance of community, simple yet impactful follow-up, and continuous support from parish communities. Practical insights and experiences from these initiatives show how robust youth mentorship can result in profound spiritual and personal transformation.

Parish Scam Alert: Fraudulent Information Requests

We've been made aware of a scam currently targeting parishes in which an individual sends an email pretending to be someone known to the parish office (e.g., a staff member, priest, or volunteer). The email may request a copy of the parish directory or other lists in order to access personal contact information.

Important Warning Signs:

The email comes from an address that does not match the official address of the person named. The message may have urgent or vague language asking for help or access to data.

What to Do:

Do not respond or provide any information. Double-check the email address carefully—scammers often use similar-looking domains. Report the email to your parish office and your IT support or diocesan communications office. Do not click any links or download attachments from suspicious emails.

Readings for Trinity Sunday

.First Reading – Proverbs 8:22-31: God's wisdom declares it was created first, before the earth and oceans. Present during creation, it rejoiced beside God, delighting in the formation of the world and humankind.

.Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 8: In awe of the heavens and stars, I marvel at human significance and dignity, honored by God with dominion over all creatures of earth, sea, and air.

.Second Reading – Romans 5:1-5: Justified by faith, we are at peace with God through Jesus, and rejoice in hope. Our sufferings produce endurance, character, and hope, filled with God's love through the Holy Spirit.

.Gospel – John 16:12-15: Jesus acknowledged the disciples' limitations in understanding and promised the coming of the Spirit of truth. This Spirit would guide them into all truth, speaking not independently, but revealing future events and glorifying Jesus by sharing His teachings. Jesus affirmed that the Spirit's revelations are from His divine authority.
