Good Friday Collection

The Good Friday Collection has a special relevance. It reminds us of our responsibility towards the land of Jesus' birth and our support of the Holy Land through these donations connects us with the sites where the salvific events of the passion, death and Resurrection unfolded. This collection attests to and abides as our "silent witness to our Savior's life upon earth."

The absence of peace as well as the poverty afflicting the region where these Holy Sites are located adds to the many long-standing problems that beckon on us for help. Thus, the Holy Land and the Holy Sites are a priority that demands the attention of the entire Catholic Church and of all the other Christian Churches and ecclesial communities.

Our monetary contributions are used for the development and preservation of these Holy Sites and to support our Christian sisters and brothers who live in this land of our common spiritual heritage. Our prayers and donations are a sign of the communion of all Christians as we all hold the Holy Land as our common heritage. Our donations help ensure these sites remain open and welcome pilgrims.

The Pontifical Collection for the Holy Land is scheduled this year for Good Friday, March 25, 2016.
